

Originally from Vancouver, Canada she has been seen on stages across British Columbia, Los Angeles, Anchorage, afloat in Hawaii and the Caribbean and across the ocean in Beijing, China. She is excited to be back with the Marina Del Rey Summer Concert Series after choreographing Aida last year. This spring she choreographed Cabaret starring Joey McIntyre for Plan-B Productions. She teaches Theatre Dance at the world-renowned Edge Performing Arts Center in Hollywood, CA and produces a monthly Musical Theatre Masterclass series with professional Choreographers in Los Angeles. As a performer some of her Regional credits include: Cabaret, Chicago; Mary Poppins, Yankee Doodle Dandy and My Fair Lady (Musical Theatre West); South Street (Pasadena Playhouse), Beauty and the Beast, Murder on the Nile, Anything Goes, Kiss Me Kate, Annie, Assassins and the Wizard of Oz. She sends her thanks to ZajacStudio, Avalon Artists Group, her ever-supportive family and incredible husband, Eric.
